

Guidelines

As a volunteer, one becomes a part of the Haadibadi family and hence it is important to follow certain guidelines for smooth functioning of the community library as well as its digital platform.

1. Volunteers must be willing to commit to the given work and communicate their preferences clearly.
2. Volunteers must respect and welcome children of all ages irrespective of their caste, gender, race, linguistic, social, cultural or economic background, religious or political beliefs, etc.
3. It is also important to respect the members' choices of reading materials and help them explore the world of reading by supporting them in different ways
4. We strictly forbid any kind of inappropriate behaviour (physical contact, verbal or non-verbal communication) with children that may make them feel uncomfortable.
5. Volunteers must seek the consent of the child or the parent before posting any of their photos on social media platforms. Also, any kind of content that might offend a person or a community should be avoided.
6. While posting digital content, it is important to take measures against copyright infringement.
7. For tasks involving communication with various individuals or groups, volunteers must maintain professional relationship.
8. Any information pertaining to the community library and its members should not be disclosed to a third-party unless it involves legal or professional purpose.
